

The Style Invitational

WEEK 11, IN WHICH WE GIVE YOU THE BACK OFF OUR SHIRTS

A mere 11 weeks after the start of this sorry contest, we finally got around to designing the T-shirts won by runners-up. But just as we were about to get them manufactured and shipped out, we came up with a swell new way to delay the whole process a few more weeks! The back of the shirt needs a slogan, something that captures the spirit of The Style Invitational. What is that spirit? You tell us. No hints this week. And no, "Your Clever Slogan Here" won't win. The right idea, though.

First-prize winner will receive five handsome T-shirts, a value of about $75. They will of course not be Style Invitational T-shirts, with your fabulous slogan on them. To win those, you have to lose. Har Har Har. (Are we total schmucks, or what?)

Runners-up, as always, get the losers' T-shirts. Winners will be selected on the basis of humor and originality. Mail your entries to the Style Invitational, Week 11, The Washington Post, 1150 15th St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20071, or fax them to 202-334-4312. Entries must be received on or before Monday, May 24. Please include your address and phone number. Winners will be announced in three weeks. No purchase necessary. Employees of The Washington Post and their immediate families are not eligible for prizes.

Report from week 8

...in which we asked you to come up with sleazy headlines for the Weekly World News:

ROSEANNE PREGNANT WITH ELVIS'S BABY. ELVIS PREGNANT WITH ROSEANNE'S BABY. BABY PREGNANT WITH ROSEANNE'S ELVIS. ELVIS HAS GAS. ELVIS HAS BOOGERS. ROSEANNE EXPLODES. Sigh. True comic genius does not submit to formula, folks. True comic genius would be a headline like CHAINSAW PROCTOLOGIST INDICTED, which no one submitted, fortunately, since it is far too tasteless to print. The promise of a story about the first-prize winner in the famously disreputable Weekly World News, as opposed to our usual lousy prizes, elicited more than 700 entries, nearly 22 of which were clever and inventive.

HERE THEY ARE:

- FIFTH RUNNER-UP: ELVIS HEADLINES USO SHOW FOR MIAS STILL IN VIETNAM
(C. Paul Mendez, Silver Spring)
- FOURTH RUNNER-UP: TRAGIC LEPER TRAPEZE ACT FATALITY
(Chuck Smith, Woodbridge)
