THE STYLE INVITATIONAL

Gulp fiction: Fake trivia about food

BY PAT MYERS

In Week 1345, The Style Invitational continued its campaign of bad-journalist disinformation with some food fictoids.

4th place

Before the late 20th century, heirloom tomatoes were called "deformed tomatoes." (Bill Dorner, Indianapolis)

3rd place

In Aramaic, "manna" means "bird poop." (Kevin Dopart, Washington)

2nd place and the 'Brussel Sprout Puffs':

Baby carrots must be at least eight weeks old before they are harvested away from adult carrots. (Robyn Carlson, Keyser, W.Va.)

And the winner of the Lose Cannon:

Pickled beef tongue can taste you back. (Byron Hoover, Stafford, Va., a First Offender)

Nom-nom-nominees: Honorable mentions

McDonald's top-selling burger in Europe is the .1134 Kiloer. (Mike Phillips, Washington)

Trump Steaks failed because of the difficulty in pairing them with the proper ketchup. (Jeff Shirley, Richmond)

The word "cafeteria" originated as a combination of "cafe" and "diarrhea." (Jon Ketzner, Cumberland, Md.)

LaCroix is French for "the faucet." (J. Larry Schott, West Plains, Mo.,

After eating a slice of American pie, most people are happy for a while. (Steve Smith, Potomac)

An apple a day does indeed keep the doctor away if accurately thrown. (Gary Crockett, Chevy Chase)

Cauliflower is actually a form of whitened broccoli; its distinct flavor is caused by the bleach. (Barrett Swink, Gainesville, Va.)

Consumer advocates have filed suit to force growers of Red Delicious es to change the variety's name to Red. (Duncan Stevens, Vienna, Va.)

New contest for Week 1349: Revise and extend these remarks

Quote from the Congressional Record:

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Georgia. Question it might answer: "Yo, La-Z-Boy, who do you think left those peach pits and pork rinds in your cushions?

A. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Georgia.

Q. "Hey, Mr. Chairman, do you know who I am with this shoe polish on my face?"

As Congress returned to "work" a few days ago after its summer recess, we thought it a good time to check in. This week's contest — a variant on our perennial Questionable Journalism challenge — was suggested by the Empress's Royal Consort, whose job often calls for him to nod off while trying to peruse the Congressional Record, the daily transcript (with substantial revisions and additions) of each day's proceedings in the House and Senate.

In our less than perfectly transparent federal government, we do have the ability to read the CR online, via a searchable PDF file for each day's sessions. This week's contest: Go to congress.gov/congressionalrecord and click on the PDF for any day's Congressional Record — House, Senate or the whole thing, or the Daily Digest; choose any sentence (or substantial part of one) and write a question that it could answer, as in the examples above. Please note which transcript you're using (and its date) so that the E could search for your sentence, were she so inclined. You may use any line in the whole document, even the bogus "revise and extend my remarks" fluff that the members add to please some constituent group or another.

Submit up to 25 entries at wapo.st/enter-invite-1349 (no capitals in the Web address).

Winner gets the Lose Cannon, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives a highbrow – in the sense that you put it high on your brow — game called Poop Hoop. This fine product distinguishes itself from other basketball-net-on-head games in two ways: (a) People toss not little foam basketballs but "poop emoji balls;" and (b) there's a little toilet seat you can lower onto the net's rim to increase the poo-toss challenge (of course the two positions are labeled "No. 1" and "No. 2"). If your boss has been lamenting, "Our office is entirely too dignified and professional," you'll have an immediate remedy to offer, you brown-nose. Donated by Marleen May.

HOROSCOPE

BY JACQUELINE BIGAR

HAPPY BIRTHDAY | Sept. 15: This year, you make changes that could surprise some people but work well for you. One-on-one relating works better for you than speaking in groups. If single, you draw in others with ease. Date all you want, but a choice feels necessary. Do not commit until you are sure of yourself. If attached, the two of you open up to better communication. Though you sometimes feel hesitant to express fragility, you will gain greater confidence with your bond. Capricorn frequently rains on your parade.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You feel empowered, but you'll need to maintain that attitude if you are to clear away some of the obstacles a professional or community involvement might draw. Tension disappears, as do some of the hassles.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You run a slow but steady ship at present. You might not be able to clear a hassle involving in-laws, travel or a special opportunity. You will do as you wish, but perhaps not today. Do not make any commitments.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You beam in a lot more of what you want just by being you. The emphasis is on friendship and receiving the reward you most desire. Allow greater flexibility and respect another person's request. They might need some distance.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You might need to move forward and handle a personal matter. How you deal with a loved one who often demands a lot from you could define your mood. Take charge, knowing what needs to happen. Consider a loved one's desires before making a decision.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

Look toward a day trip or schedule a mini-vacation in the near future. Understand what is going on around your home. Try to avoid an unusual risk at all costs. Examine new ideas and possibilities without acting, for now.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) One-on-one relating is highlighted. No matter what you decide to do or which direction you head, stay open. If feeling defensive or challenged, you could shut down. Be aware of your desires. Express more of what you want.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) One-on-one relating takes a quick turn. Others seem more affable than they have been in a while. You see a situation mount that could cause a problem around your domestic life. You cannot shirk your responsibilities.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) You might not want to reveal much more than you have for now. Your smile goes a long way, and you might not need to verbalize as much. Try to diffuse a sense of negativity that surrounds several conversations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Your creativity emerges, especially if facing a lack of funds. You and your playmates discover how much fun you can have with a low budget. Let go of your concerns and make the most of the moment.
