THE STYLE INVITATIONAL

Redoer's Digest: Retrospective Part 1

BY PAT MYERS

In Week 1362. Part 1 of our annual retrospective, we let you enter (or reenter) any of 24 contests from the first half of the past year.

4th place:

Week 1322, problematic inventions:

The Newfohuahua. (Ken April, Arlington)

3rd place:

Week 1323, shorten a movie

"3:10 to Yum[a]": Instructional film for making the most of your microwave. (Jeff Contompasis, Ashburn)

2nd place and the book of Joan Crawford paper dolls:

Week 1307, change a term by one letter:

Receding heirline: Family you see less of since you lost your money. (Jon Gearhart, Des Moines)

And the winner of the Lose Cannon:

Week 1318, anagrams: Article II, Section 4, of the Constitution: "The President, Vice President and all civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors . . .

Anagrams to (using every letter above): Before endorsing voodoo, Republicans promise heaven and reaffirm they're in fact foremost victims of reason. Biden and Clinton (sphincters!) have committed theft - federal crimes! Hill idiots cheer. (Kevin Dopart, Washington)

Laughedovers: Honorable mentions

Week 1307, change a letter: Erros: The god of misguided love. (Jeff Contompasis)

Fondud: Aunt Edna's Velveeta and Wonder Bread cheese surprise. (Sam Mertens, Silver Spring)

Adullery: An affair that's even more boring than your marriage. (Tom Witte, Montgomery Village)

Week 1312, neologisms containing T-O-U-R in any order: Bot-rus Bot-rus Ghali: Putin's new representative to the U.N. (Mike

Sourteen: A stage of adolescence. "Don't mind Janice, she hasn't spoken to anyone since her sourteenth birthday." (Frank Osen, Pasadena, Calif.)

Week 1313, poems about people who died in 2018:

Gips, Bethesda)

Mile runner Sir Roger Bannister To offer Sir Roger a suitable toast Tell folks that you'll speak for five minutes, at most. Then tell of his challenge, his triumph and more And get to the finish in just under four. (Bob Kruger, Rockville)

Aretha Franklin Aretha Franklin, Queen of Soul -A singing legend we extol. Now she's gone, we pray that she R. I. P-E-A-C-E. (Jesse Frankovich, Lansing, Mich.)

Week 1314, "joint legislation" with congressional names:

The Fulcher-Fletcher-Finkenauer provision for printable alternatives to use after "mother." (Jesse Frankovich)

Week 1315, crossword clues: EARPLUGS: Role of tiny fingers when the president says, "La la la la la." (Jesse Frankovich)

Week 1316, fake trivia citing "statistics":

92 percent of clickbait uses this one weird trick. (John Hutchins, Silver

In a recent survey, 59 percent of Native Americans found the Washington Redskins offensive; the remaining 41 percent didn't see them play this season. (John Hutchins)

Week 1318, anagrams:

Articles of impeachment = The top criminal faces 'em. (Jesse Frankovich)

Week 1321, online reviews of given mundane products: Shoelaces: "I bought the 54-inch green ones for my go-to party trick - sucking a pair up my nostrils and pulling them out of my mouth. Five stars. (Chris Doyle, Denton, Tex.)

Week 1322, bad product ideas: The solar-powered electric chair.

BOB STAAKE FOR THE WASHINGTON POST

New contest for Week 1366: Tour de Fours XVI — It's the LIAR club

EARILY:

How strange is it that you remember every note of the theme music for a sitcom from 50 years ago?

PEQULIARITY:

The desire to have an unusually spelled name. "That's Marcq with a C and a Q... right, first C, then Q... Yeah, my mom was really into pequliarity.'

MATEARIAL:

What you need lots of for a good sob story.

BARIAL: The preferred font for obituaries.

Once again, it's the neologism contest we call Tour de Fours. And this week, at the suggestion of Loser Jon Gearhart at the inspiration of We Can't Imagine Who: Coin a word or multi-word term that contains the letter block L-I-A-R and describe it, as in the examples above (the last two of them Jon's). The letters may be in any order, but there can't be any letters between them (you may insert a space or hyphen). You might enhance your entry by including an amusing example, or by showing how someone could use the word in real life, since there's a good chance that someone else will send in the same term you did.

Submit up to 25 entries at wapo.st/enter-invite-1366 (no capitals in the Web address). Deadline is Monday, Jan. 20; results will appear Feb. 9 in print, Feb.

Winner gets the Lose Cannon, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives a wonderful custom-made craftwork: It's a replica — except that it's crocheted — of the 29,000-year-old Venus of Willendorf, or, better, Woman of Willendorf, since the voluptuous 5-inch-tall limestone figurine, discovered in Austria in 1908, predates anyone named Venus by at least 25,000 years. Ms. Willendorf, let's call her, even has a wire inside so you can pose her. Handmade by local fiber artist Dawn Zurell from a pattern by trishagurumi.com, and donated by 16-time Loser J.J. Gertler.

Other runners-up win one of our new "For Best Results, Pour Into Top End" Loser Mugs or our "Whole Fools" Grossery Bag. Honorable mentions get one of our lusted-after Loser magnets, "Too-Weak Notice" or "Certificate of (de) Merit." First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air "freshener" (FirStink for their first ink). See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/ InvRules. The headline "Redoers' Digest" is by Jon Gearhart; Jon Ketzner wrote the honorable-mentions subhead. Join the lively Style Invitational Devotees group on Facebook at on.fb.me/invdev. HOROSCOPE

xwordeditor@aol.com

BY JACQUELINE BIGAR

HAPPY BIRTHDAY | Jan. 12: This year, you seem able to easily integrate with others on a one-on-one level. Your popularity naturally soars. If single, dating provides many insights. You are likely to meet someone who gives you a case of the butterflies this year. If attached, your loved one could covet your time and want to spend more time together than ever before. Make it your pleasure. Virgo fusses about details and often pushes you away inadvertently.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Encourage a loved one or family member to get more into their feelings. Deciding on a joint venture or a family happening might be your strong suit. In this scenario, you can create a sense of well-being and happiness.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Family and your domestic life are your high priorities. You might want to indulge a loved one and go off and do whatever this person most adores. Your sense of humor emerges when hitting a mini controversy over plans yet to be GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be more direct in how you handle a personal issue. The more you listen, as well as share, the easier it will be to come to a solution. Your ability to get past a problem often puts you in a leadership position.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You might be ready to go out and enjoy a day pursuing a favorite activity unrelated to the past few weeks. Some of you might enjoy going to the movies; others delight in visiting the zoo.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You are all smiles and ready to take the next step in a new adventure. You could find it difficult to understand another person's reluctance to take a small risk. Listen to their objectives. Imagine yourself in this person's shoes.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You might want to cancel your plans. Make that desire okay. You never know when fatigue will hit, especially after such a hectic period. Getting some sleep and doing what you want might be just what the doctor ordered.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) You have an inclination to do what is suggested rather than push to have your way. You also might need to recognize your obligations to a family member before you go off to ioin a friend.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) You might want to reconsider a meeting with someone you find very special. Though this person can be charming and agreeable, they also can have dark moments that are challenging.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You tend to push past barriers and will do just that right now. When you get to the other side, you might wonder whether all the effort was worth it. You will be able to judge that later.

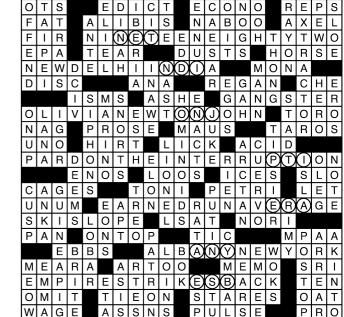

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You might feel restricted by events, and in a sense you are. The other party involved could feel a lot freer than you and will take a dominant role. Though you might want to be critical, be smart and go along with their choices.

©2020 Tribune Content Agency, LLC

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Continue to defer to another party. Make today a day to relax and enjoy a special person in your life. In a discussion, you might reveal more of yourself than you have for a long time. Your openness will be returned.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) You could be taking the lead organizing and clearing out a project. Others might decide to demonstrate their interest in a certain type of cuisine. You will tend to be happiest among friends and loved ones.
