You’ll Never Take Me Alive Copper: The color of a dirty rat. (Tom Criss; Dave Ferry)

Oxymaroon: A perky brown. (Gina Morgan; Mike Thring)

Govern Mint: Please refer to specification Mil-Q- 17983245, Rev. G, w/Appendix J, which details the hue, tone, shade, tolerance, refraction, reflection, intensity and brilliance of this color. (Paul Styrene, aka Ted Weitzman)

This week’s second prize, the Happy Pill: Go ahead and operate heavy machinery. It’s all good. (Not to be taken internally.) (Pat Myers/The Washington Post)

The colors above were among the winning entries in a contest from Year 1 of The Style Invitational, back in 1993. It was a contest to “name a new crayon color for the 1990s,” pegged to Crayola’s own innovations of “Tickle Me Pink” and “Macaroni and Cheese.” Given that many of Week 39’s entries were as 1990s-colored as a Dodge Caravan in Island Teal, there were references to Joey Buttafuoco, William Kennedy Smith and the Rainbow Coalition — the Empress figures we can give this contest another go: This week: Invent a name for a color and describe it, as in the examples above. They can be crayon colors, car colors, wall paint colors, lipstick colors, whatever.

Winner gets the Inkin’ Memorial, the Lincoln statue bobblehead that is the official Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives the appropriately colorful Happy Pill, a pink and white hand-size plush toy capsule you can squeeze to its evident delight, since it commences to giggle raucously for 13 interminable seconds. Donated by the inexplicably beaming Dave Prevar.

Other runners-up win their choice of a yearned-for Loser Mug or the ardently desired “Whole Fools” Grossery Bag. Honorable mentions get a lusted-after Loser magnet designed by Bob Staake: either “The Wit Hit the Fan” or “Hardly Har-Har.” First Offenders receive a smelly tree-shaped air “freshener” (FirStink for their first ink). E-mail entries to losers@washpost.com or, if you were born in the 19th century, fax to 202-334-4312. Deadline is Monday, April 20; results published May 10 (online May 7). You may submit up to 25 entries per contest. Include “Week 1119” in your e-mail subject line or it might be ignored as spam. Include your real name, postal address and phone number with your entry. See contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/InvRules. The headline for this week’s results is by Chris Doyle; the honorable-mentions subhead is by Roy Ashley.
