

Style Invitational

BY PAT MYERS

Report from Week 1013

in which we asked for jokes in riddle form that use puns on people's names. We warn you now: They are shamelessly groan-inducing. In fact, hearing them read without the groan afterward would be like hearing a comedy album recorded without an audience. So go ahead.

THE
OF THE INKIN'
MEMORIAL

Q. Is squeaky-voiced smarminess annoying in all adolescent pop stars?

A. No, Justin Bieber. (Natalie Beary, Great Mills, a First Offender, and the 13-year-old daughter of the fourth-place winner)

2 Winner of the Fanny Bank, a jeans-shaped bank that emits a gross noise when you put in a coin:

Q. "Hey, Cletus, where can I find out about them Israeli pellet guns?"

A. "BB.net 'n' Yahoo!" (Christopher Lamora, Guatemala City)

3 Q. Why is sitting alone in the cold reading 17th-century diaries a highly social activity?

A. With a Chris Doyle ball! (John O'Byrne)

BOB STAAKE FOR THE WASHINGTON POST

THIS WEEK'S CONTEST

Week 1017: Vowel play

MO. POLS GOOF OFF, OPT TO FORGO WORK FBI PINCH! MITT IN ILLICIT 'BIG DIG' GRIFT!

Proto-Loser Elden Carnahan — who maintains a Web site, nrars.org, that keeps track of every blot of ink ever scored by any person in the 20-year history of the Style Invitational — is on the cusp of entrance into the Invite Hall of Fame, with 492 entries and other mentions since he debuted in Week 20, in 1993. Elden gets his 493rd ink with his contest idea this week: Write a "univocalic" newspaper headline — one that uses only one vowel throughout, as in Elden's examples above. You may use the letter Y as well as your A, E, I, O or U; it would be cooler if you didn't have to, but the Empress is a wee bit apprehensive about how hard this contest is.

Winner gets the Inkin' Memorial, the Lincoln-statue bobblehead that is the official Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives the droll game Basket Head, in which some schlemiel puts a plastic basketball hoop on his head and other people toss things at the hoop (not actual basketballs, we hope; you can see what happened to Dennis Rodman after he played this game with the real thing). We've given out a similar item before called Basket Case (pictured here because it's a funnier box) and can vouch that it guarantees excellent photo opportunities. Donated by Nan Reiner.

Other runners-up win their choice of a yearned-for Loser Mug or the ardently desired Grossery Bag. Honorable mentions get a lusted-after Loser magnet. First Offenders receive a smelly, tree-shaped air "freshener" (FirStink for their first ink). E-mail entries to losers@washpost.com or fax to 202-334-4312. Deadline is Monday, April 22; results published May 12 (online May 9). No more than 25 entries per entrant per week. Include "Week 1017" in your e-mail subject line or it might be ignored as spam. Include your real name, postal address and phone number with your entry. See contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/inviterules. The subhead for this week's honorable mentions is by Tom Witte.
