Jest for the Record: Week 1349 ink

BY PAT MYERS

In Week 1349 the Empress invited readers to explore the Congressional Record, the official chronicle of the daily doings — and non-doings — of the legislative branch, and then to choose any sentence they could access from the CR website (which goes back to 1995) and come up with a question that the CR sentence might answer. Fewer people than usual entered, but as the E had predicted, those who did really got into it, as you'll see from the ink. And they didn't have to look far to find a lot of congressional inanity.

4th place:

A. "I wish for them a lifetime of love as endless as the ocean and as timeless as the tides."

Q. "Mr. President, how do you plan to support the people of the Bahamas as they try to rebuild?" (Sarah Walsh, Rockville)

3rd place:

A. "I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from South Carolina, who has unusual socks on today."

Q. How do you tactfully tell a colleague that he has forgotten to put his pants on again? (Gary Crockett, Chevy Chase)

2nd place and the Poop Hoop toilet-seat-on-head basketball game:

A. A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Q. How did you scare those teenagers off drugs with a visit to the morgue? (Sam Mertens, Silver Spring)

And the winner of the Lose Cannon:

A. "It is important to end the gender gap, because half the people working for minimum wage are women."

Q. Rep. Carolyn B. Maloney (D-N.Y.), would you explain the gender pay gap in the most statistically idiotic way? (Sam Mertens)

Lacks of Congress: Honorable mentions

A. "It is $1.4 billion — that is nine zeros — a day."

Q. What statement by Sen. John N. Kennedy (R-La.) about government borrowing shows he can't count zeros? (Jeff Contompasis, Ashburn)

A. "They let her wander. In violation of all their own policies, she wandered outside. She wandered outside for more than 20 minutes."

Q. What has been Melania's favorite moment as first lady? (Jesse Rifkin, Arlington)

A. "Evidently a quorum is not present."

Q. Speaker Pelosi, do you think the president has all his marbles? (Kevin Dopart, Washington)

A. "I ask unanimous consent that I may proceed as in morning business for 30 seconds."

Q. How must junior congressmen ask to go to the bathroom? (Frank Osen, Pasadena, Calif.)

A. "I smiled this last weekend when I filled up for $2.25."

Q. How is your all-poppcorn diet going? (Gary Crockett)

A. "This crisis is affecting communities all over the country."

Q. So it's really hard to get a Popeye's chicken sandwich? (Jesse Frankovich, Lansing, Mich.)

A. "Words fail me."

Q. How do you explain your nickname, President Coolidge? (Chris Doyle, Denton, Tex.)

A. "During my time in this body, I have had graduates and students of Virginia Tech work and intern for me."

Q. Dalai Lama, what have you done since becoming an Honorary Hokie? (Kevin Dopart)

A. "He aimed well."

Q. At his retirement party, what is the highest praise a guy can get from the janitorial staff? (Kevin Dopart)

A. "I have spent a lot of time on the Senate floor."

Q. Do you admit, senator, that your drinking interferes with the performance of your duties? (Beverly Sharp, Montgomery, Ala.)

A. I like the bill Senator Hagan and I worked on.

Q. Mr. President, what's your favorite part about building this giant butter-sculpture of Donald Duck? (Frank Osen)

BOB STAAKE FOR THE WASHINGTON POST

New contest for Week 1353: What's playing at the retroplex

Get In: In this fantasy, a young black man finds that it's super-easy to hail a cab.

Camelittle: The Knights of the Round Table, weary of fighting injustice, take a nap.

Get Along Fine Club: A disaffected man is drawn into a secret society of anger management professionals.

Apocalypse Eventually: A soldier makes his way upriver in Vietnam, noticing along the way the incremental effects of climate change.

As has many a Style Invitational contest lately, this week's was suggested by Wildly Successful Loser Duncan Stevens, who got 136 blots of Invite ink in the previous year alone: Change a movie title to its "opposite" by reversing one or more words; then describe the new movie, as in Duncan's examples above.

Submit up to 25 entries at wapo.st/enter-invite-1353 (no capitals in the Web address).

Winner gets the Lose Cannon, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives Twinkle Tush, a colorful little modesty "jewel" that you would hang beneath your cat's tail. (That is, you would if you were insane; even the packaging says you shouldn't leave it on your cat.) Donated by Loser Melissa Yorks, then inexplicably declined by whoever won it a few years ago.

Other runners-up win our "You Gotta Play to Lose" Loser Mug or our "Whole Fools" Grocery Bag. Honorable mentions get one of our lusted-after Loser magnets, "Too-Weak Notice" or "Certificate of (de) Merit." First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air "freshener" (FirStink for their first ink). Deadline is Monday, Oct. 21; results published Nov. 10 in print, Nov. 7 online. See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/InvRules. The headline "Jest for the Record" is by Chris Doyle; Jon Gearhart submitted the honorable-mentions subhead. The latest in feline butt-bling: this week's second prize.

A. "I yield myself as much time as I may consume."

Q. Whatever happened to the era of common courtesy? (Jesse Frankovich; Jeff Contompasis)

A. "This bill had been a No. 1 legislative priority of our Nation's law enforcement officers, and I am proud of this bipartisan effort to support law enforcement and public safety."

Q. What can you tell me about the effort to enact "Free Donuts for Cops" Day? (Sam Mertens)

A. "We cannot be driven by polls."

Q. What is the most passive-aggressive way to call for impeachment? (Gary Crockett)

A. "Irregardless . . ."

Q. To the dismay of word nerds, what word appears in the Congressional Record at least 30 times, most recently on May 23? (Bill Dornier, Indianapolis)

A: "There are approximately 39 pending amendments which are probably in order and about 69 that are not, and those numbers may be off a little bit but they are not bad for government work at 8:30 in the middle of a Red Sox game."

Q. Can you describe congressional dysfunction in a nutshell? (Sarah Walsh)

A. "It is a bicameral effort."

Q. Rep. Gohmert, what do you call two dromedaries crossing a desert? (Frank Osen)

Week 1351: Ideas for timely Halloween costumes or parties — or actual photos of new ones. See wapo.st/invite1351.

Week 1352: Write a steamy scene about an unsteamy situation. See wapo.st/invite1352.

Answers to last week's puzzle below.

HOROSCOPE

BY JACQUELINE BIGAR

HAPPY BIRTHDAY | Oct. 13: This year, you have the opportunity to head in a unique direction. You might weigh the pros and cons for a substantial period before deciding which way to go. If single, you meet many people but might note an explosive quality about relationships. This too will pass. If you're attached, you and your partner have a newfound intensity. Learn to identify with your sweetie more often. Aries can be volatile at times. Know that you often have the same issues but different approaches.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
You might feel edgy as you begin your day. You might be sensing the chaos that this full moon day could wreak upon you. Be optimistic; stay positive, knowing full well what you want and desire. Avoid difficult people.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
You might feel uneasy as you sense that others are upset. The unexpected runs wild, and you might be more of a participant than you realize. A partner seems abundant with goodwill and intensity. Try to respond to this person.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
Zero in on a goal. What you want might be silly, or what you judge as silly. Understand who might be raining on your parade. Recognize what's happening around your friends. Some of them could be too intense for your taste.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
You might want to change your plans. You see others — especially an authority figure — as difficult and somewhat explosive. Push could come to shove. Be careful; you could be part of the problem.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
If you want to spontaneously hop in the car and take a drive, do it. A change of environment could make a big difference. You could note that others are short-tempered. Ignore their behavior. Take the high road.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
One-on-one relating takes you down a new path. Be willing to share more of your feelings. Understand that others, and you, might be overly sensitive. Try to be optimistic and positive.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
Defer to others, knowing full well that many of the people around you are feisty and difficult. Let them play out their moods. Be smart; be nonreactive, knowing that this too will pass.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
You might have a project that you need to tackle around the house. A friend might offer to pitch in but might prove to be more of an interference as they decide that they have a better way to proceed.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
You could feel as though you need to proceed in a certain manner. Others seem to be extremely emotional. How you handle a personal matter could radically change.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Defer to another person; get to the bottom of a problem. You could find that a family member is feisty and determining much of what's going on today. You could be quiet or opt to go in a separate direction.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
You discover that a talk might not be finding the way you thought it would. Be more open than you have been until now. Join your friends, though you could be somewhat feisty and difficult.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
Use good sense with your spending. Stay in touch with what you most desire. How you handle a personal matter could radically change after a discussion. Be aware of what you offer another person.
