THE STYLE INVITATIONAL

Meeting the c'ha'llenge of 'air quotes'

BY PAT MYERS

In Week 1355, we once again asked you to define a word or phrase in the context of a word that appears within the word. The T'rump joke is as old as the man himself, but it must have seemed totally fresh to the dozen people who sent it in as an entry.

BOB STAAKE FOR THE WASHINGTON POST

New contest for Week 1359: Back up in the air (quotes)

Well, that's a doo"zy. Go te"ll your father the news.

We have added an impor"tant ric"hness to our lovemaking.

If you go through life with the Penta"tuch as" your guide, you should be able to avoid making an ass of yourself.

This week we present the results of our Week 1355 "air quote" contest, in which you define a term by pointing out another, relevant word or short phrase within it. And when Longtime Loser Roy Ashley was working on his entries, he had an idea for a spinoff: This week: Write a sentence or two and highlight an "air quote" that spans two or more words (and two sentences if you like), as in Roy's examples above. I'm not going to forbid bending the actual spelling of the word or phrase in the air quote, but I predict that correct spellings make for funnier jokes. If you submitted a words-spanning entry for Week 1355, feel free to recast it and send it again this week.

Submit up to 25 entries at wapo.st/enter-invite-1359 (no capitals in the Web address). Deadline is Monday, Dec. 2; results will appear Dec. 22 in print, Dec. 19 online.

Winner gets the Lose Cannon, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives, just in time for the holiday, a pair of socks featuring "Happy Hanukkah" and a menorah with . . . seven candles. (That's the regular rest-of-the-year menorah you'll see in Jewish symbols; a Hanukkah menorah has nine candles, one for each day of the holiday plus one to light the other candles.) Donated by Eagle-Eyed Loser Marleen May.

Other runners-up win one of our last "You Gotta Play to Lose" Loser Mugs or our "Whole Fools" Grossery Bag. Honorable mentions get one of our lusted-after Loser magnets, "Too-Weak Notice" or "Certificate of (de) Merit." First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air "freshener" (FirStink for their first ink). See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/InvRules. The "Cha'llenge" headline is by Kevin Dopart; Chris Doyle wrote the honorable-mentions subhead. Answers to last week's puzzle below.

HOROSCOPE

BY JACQUELINE BIGAR

HAPPY BIRTHDAY | Nov. 24: This year, you seem quite serious, yet your imagination is running off with wild ideas more often than not. You see answers on a deeper level than in the past. If single, a new door could open as you might choose to be with a very different type of person. They might be quite shy. If attached, you bring out the softer side of your sweetie. They feel more protected with you. Scorpio understands you well.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Lay off spending and making important decisions. The unexpected runs through your finances. A partner could act up out of the blue. Play it cool and go for a walk or some other activity.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You might not be aware of how rebellious you have become. Many of you will take that steady Taurus way and stand up to what appears to be a bad idea. You might give others quite a jolt.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You could be more verbal than you realize. You hear something that stops you dead in your tracks. You could be taken aback and stunned by the implications. Pace yourself and do not get uptight.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your imagination takes you down a new path, and you might have difficulty coming out of your thoughts because they appear to be more amusing. A discussion might not take you in the direction you desire.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Have the family over for dinner; you don't need to make it a big thing. Family and home remain high priorities. You might want to chill some, but make sure you touch base with a key family member.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You can read between the lines at present. You notice what is not said. Take a cue from this observation. You might not want to initiate any hot topics right now.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Take charge of a project with ease, but you need to keep your budget in mind. You could easily go overboard with spending. A partner also might be out of control.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Your intensity draws others toward you. Some people might be a bit hesitant because of the magnetism you radiate. You could be unusually fortunate or lucky when dealing with finances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Understand that sometimes the less said, the better. You have a lot on your mind. Use timing to air out some of your thoughts. Give yourself a few days before completely verbalizing your thoughts.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Emphasize the positive in a friendship. Consider how you feel when you are around this person. You might opt for a repeat experience. A child or loved one might throw a tantrum that could stun you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Wherever you are, it appears that others notice you. You could be uncomfortable with all the attention you are receiving. Relax and go with the moment. A friend makes a suggestion that you cannot say no to.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) You demonstrate your ability to detach from an immediate situation. You could decide to go for a ride in the country, to just relax and hopefully meet up with a friend. You might not want to return home.
