Hyphen help us! Winning neologisms

BY PAT MYERS

Week 1474 was another of our Hyphen the Terrible contests, in which we asked you to coin a new word by combining two halves of hyphenated terms (including ones that broke over a line) you found in a print or online newspaper.

4th place:

De-tailed + be-tween:
DE-TWEEN: To remove the Super Mario sheets from your ninth-grader's bed. (Leif Picoult, Rockville)

3rd place:

Misinforma-tion + Beetho-ven:
MISINFORMA-VEN: Someone who's done his own research. (Ann Martin, Brentwood)

2nd place and the 2004 vintage Loser Mug:

Non-red + an-nouncement:
NON-NOUCEMENT: "For now, I'm 100 percent focused on the job the voters elected me to do." (Gary Crockett, Chevy Chase)

And the winner of the Clowning Achievement:

Paper-work + privi-lege:
PAPER-PRIVI: The repository for highly sensitive Trump administration documents. (Steve Smith, Potomac)

HALVE-NOTS Honorable mentions

RUS-ISTAN: What Ukraine vows not to become. (William Joyner, Crozet, Va.)

COAL-JERK: Pertaining to Sen. Joe Manchin. "The new clean-energy bill produced the expected coal-jerk reaction." (Jesse Frankovich, Lansing, Mich.)

LIB-SURDITY: Any criticism of the dynamic tourism at the Capitol that day. — R. McDaniel, Republican National Committee (Kevin Dopart, Washington)

NA-NAVIRUS: Vaxxers and anti-vaccine mocked each other for contracting it. (Frank Osen, Pasadena, Calif.)

FEBRU-MENTAL: A couple days short of a month, if you know what I mean. (Gary Crockett)

ST-ICK: Don't sit on this Santa's lap! (Steve Smith)

COMPETI-DRESSING: For many teenagers, it's the real prom event. (Howard Walderman, Columbia)

ALT-QUALITY: Euphemism for "chintzy." "Our dollar store has a wide selection of alt-quality items." (Jesse Frankovich)

ANONY-MIES: People you didn't even know you hated. (Wendy Shang, Falls Church)

CONSERVA-DRESSING: Formerly, a dark suit, white shirt and striped tie. Today, antlers, red ball cap or tinfoil hat. (Mark Raffman, Reston)

CONFECTIOUS: What do you call a piece of birthday cake after a group of 4-year-olds helped blow out the candles? (Steve Smith)

CURRICANE: What happens when the vindaloo sends you to the loo. (Mike Ostapiej, Ravenel, S.C.)

DECI-FOOT: An oh-so-convenient unit of measure equal to 30.48 millimeters. (Jeff Contompasis, Ashburn)

DE-GROOMING: Leaving him waiting at the altar. (Roy Ashley, Washington)

DE-PUBLICAN: A Democrat who seems to be pulling for the other side — not to Manchin any names. (Jonathan Jensen, Baltimore)

HYPER-MUTERS: Two years into the pandemic, they still can't remember to turn their mics back on in a Zoom meeting. (Jeff Rackow, Bethesda)

FORM-FIGHTING: What too-tight jeans are. (Terri Berg Smith, Rockville)

INTERROGATO: A curious cat. (Tom Witte, Montgomery Village)

MAGA-DUCTION: A singular sort of logic. "Pence didn't overturn the election results, so

New for Week 1478: It's a small, small word

The bars are all filled — it's a very good sign; The beer's going fast and they're serving up wine. We're FINALLY out! There's widescreen TV! The big game is starting: It's — yes! — World War Three!

Here's a contest we did back in 2014, but now you'll get to use a nifty self-checking tool that 418-time Loser Art Grinath brought to the Empress's attention: Write a humorous poem, eight lines max, using only those from a list of the 1,000 most common English words, such as the one above by Style Invitational cartoonist Bob Staake (who's written many of his picture books in rhyme) — and this time the list is according to the fabulous Randall Munroe, creator of the comic strip XKCD and especially "Up Goer Five," a blueprint-style diagram of the Saturn V rocket, with notations "using only the ten hundred words people use most often." The rocket, for example, is called a "flying space car"; helium is "funny voice air." You may add a title, common word or not.

A year after our Week 1069 contest, Munroe created the website Simple Writer (skcd.com/simplewriter), which lets you type your own simple writing — and instantly flags every word that's not on his "ten hundred word" list. You don't see the list; you find out when you type. But it allows many plurals, past tenses and contractions. In any case, your poem must not have any words flagged on Simple Writer.

Submit up to 25 entries at wapo.st/enter-invite-1478 (no capitals in the Web address). Deadline is Monday, March 14; results appear April 3 in print, March 31 online.

On your calves, the cheeriest Bigfoot ever. This week's second prize.

magnets, "A Small Jester of Appreciation" or "Close, but Ceci N'est Pas un Cigare." First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air "freshener" (FirStink for their first ink). See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/inviteFAQ. The headline "Hyphen Help Us" is by Jesse Frankovich; Tom Witte and Craig Dykstra both submitted the honorable-mentions subhead. Join the lively Style Invitational Devotees group on Facebook at on.fb.me/invdev; "like" the Style Invitational Ink of the Day on Facebook at bit.ly/inkofday; and follow @StyleInvite on Twitter.

The Style Conversational: The Empress's weekly online column discusses this week's new contest and results; definitely check it out if you might enter a common-word poem. See this week's at wapo.st/conv1478.

Winner gets the Clowning Achievement, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives a handsome pair of Bigfoot Socks, lime green legwear featuring a rather trim and amiable Sasquatch sporting a jaunty red scarf. They are indeed men's-size, so they do live up to their name that way. Donated by Dave Prevar.

Other runners-up win their choice of our "For Best Results, Pour Into Top End" Loser Mug or our "Whole Fools" Grossery Bag.

Honorable mentions get one of our new lost-after Loser magnets, "A Small Jester of Appreciation" or "Close, but Ceci N'est Pas un Cigare." First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air "freshener" (FirStink for their first ink). See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/inviteFAQ. that MUST mean he's in league with George Soros and AOC!" (Duncan Stevens, Vienna)

MAR-A-PULT: A quick exit from Palm Beach for those who fail to kiss the ring. "Right after he beat Trump at golf — boing! He got the Mar-a-pult." (Frank Mann, Washington)

TEENEST: Most harebrained. "Subway surfing — riding on the roof of a moving train? That is the teenest idea ever." (Bill Dorner, Indianapolis)

ODOR-GRAM: A lingering olfactory signature. "Pete's cologne sent another odor-gram — and he left five minutes ago!" (Pam Shermeyer, Lathrup Village, Mich.)

OUT-MOM: "I've felt pretty guilty after our phone calls before, but she really out-mommed herself this time." (Jesse Frankovich)

PANDEM-OCRATS: The socialist brownshirts who try to prevent outbreaks of freedom. — M.T.G., Georgia (Kevin Dopart)

RE-LICING: A handy but inadvisable trick for getting out of school (Coleman Glenn, Huntingdon Valley, Pa.)

PRE-PUBLICAN: A fifth-grader who complains to the school board that long division makes him uncomfortable. (Jonathan Jensen)

PRE-PUBLICANS: Advocates of police defunding who have yet to be mugged. (Jeff Contompasis)

RIP-UP-LICAN: A POTUS who doesn't give a . . . rip about some Presidential Records Act. (Kevin Dopart)

SEMMENTALISTS: Zealots who believe every sperm is sacred. (Terri Berg Smith)

NATURE-CAN: The spacious "outhouse" of the woods. (Beverly Sharp, Montgomery, Ala.)

SOLO-PLAUSE: What comes from that one person at the concert who didn't know you don't clap between movements. (Barbara Turner, Takoma Park Village, Mich.)

TICK-FIL-A: Fast food that sticks to your ribs. (Chris Doyle, Denton, Tex.)

UNCOMFORT-HUG: An embrace from your unvaccinated cousin. (Steve Leifer, Potomac)

UNRENT: A polite term for "evict." (Lenard King, Richmond)

And Last: LIFE-FREE: What you are if you spend hours and hours scanning hundreds of articles for hyphenated words for some contest that pays you in magnets. (Jesse Frankovich, who has 874 blots of Invite ink)

Still running — deadline Monday night, March 7: Our contest for user reviews for any of eight everyday products. See wapo.st/invite1477.

Answers to last week's puzzle below.

HOROSCOPE

BY GEORGIA NICOLS

Happy Birthday | March 6: You live by your own rules. You love style based on beauty, grace and elegant etiquette. You are dedicated to what you value. This year, service to others (especially family) will be a theme. Take care of your health so you can be a resource to others. You might even consider a makeover.

Moon Alert: After 3 a.m., there are no restrictions to shopping or important decisions. The Moon is in Taurus.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Your focus is on money and possessions. But for the next few weeks, you'll be more involved with friends, clubs and organizations. This includes younger people as well as artistic, creative types. You'll definitely be more popular.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
The Moon in your sign will heighten your emotions and reactions to others. But the good news is it will also slightly increase your good luck! Meanwhile, relations with bosses and parents will become a stronger focus.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
You might want to hide. Nevertheless, a different astrological influence that exists for the next month will make you want to travel, explore and seek adventure! ("Should I pack tropical?")

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
Friendships are important, especially your interaction with a female friend. Meanwhile, in the next few weeks, disputes about shared property might arise. Fear not, because it looks like you'll be laughing all the way to the bank.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
You are high-viz. People seem to know personal details about your private life as well. Meanwhile, your focus on partners and close friends will be stronger in the next few weeks.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
You want adventure, a chance to travel and an opportunity to see new places and meet new faces. In the next few weeks, you will work hard and people will help you. (A work-related romance might begin.)

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
You feel increasingly rewarded about your work and health. You might focus on shared assets. Meanwhile, in the month ahead, expect more opportunities to socialize and enjoy romance, sports and fun activities with kids.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
You have to go more than halfway when dealing with others. This simply requires tolerance, accommodation and cooperation. In the next month, you will be busy at home with redecorating projects and bustling activities!

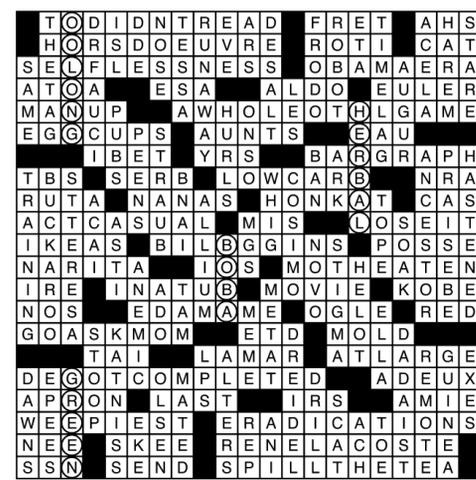

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
Be ready to help someone or perform a service for someone who needs your help. Despite your current focus on home and family, in the month ahead you will be busy charming everyone and taking short trips.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
This is a busy time, and today is a fun-loving, playful day. Enjoy pleasing yourself and doing exactly what you want. Meanwhile, you might attract money to you in the month ahead. Certainly, many of you will be working hard to earn it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
You will enjoy having a chance to cocoon at home and relax among familiar surroundings. Meanwhile, both Venus and Mars have entered your sign, which means you will be charming and energetic in the months to come. Everyone loves you.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
You feel powerful, which is one reason you want to enlighten someone about something. You want a serious, meaningful discussion — nothing superficial. For some of you, this could relate to a secret love affair. Of course, if it's a secret, who's talking?
