Living in Style Why Not 1 K ?

by: Russ "Jar-Jar" Beland

Elden Carnahan-Debut: Week 22; Points: 284; Currently Running 4th

Strengths: Keeps the stats.

Concerns: Cushy lawyer's job could make him lazy.

Handicapper's report: Another consistent contributor with few hot or cold streaks, probably too far back to overtake the leaders. Creative stat keeping could, however, prove decisive.

Bottom Line: Should get to 1,000 on week 1,203. Track Odds: 27:1

Russ Beland-Debut: Week 73; Points: 251; Currently Running 5th

Strengths: Complains a lot; gets ear ink.

Concerns: Semi-retired. Czar could weary of being called an "unfunny hunk of partially digested mammal flesh."

Handicapper's report: Showing signs of life again after a disastrous year six, Beland would clearly need to crank it up a notch to overtake the leaders.

Bottom Line: Should get to 1,000 on week 1,032. Track Odds: 15:1

Dave Genser-Debut: Week 157; Points: 235; Currently Running 6th

Strengths: Another federal employee with plenty of free time.

Concerns: Got a late start. Slowed down after record year.

Handicapper's report: Showed top potential his first two years. Slowed of late, but still at a solid pace. The late start appears, however, to be too much to overcome. Better luck contending for the 2,000 appearances title.

Bottom Line: Should get to 1,000 on week 984. Track Odds: 12:1

Long Shots

Paul: A late starter, but still piling up points fast. Track Odds: 30:1

Hull: Nearly 300 points behind Smith with too many people to pass in too little time. Track Odds: 32:1

Zarrow: Hit for seven HMs in one week, but can he do that thirty more times? Track Odds: 35:1

Dudzik: Scores points every which way, but would have to triple his historic output. Track Odds: 40:1

Romm: The first standout new comer, he climbed to third lifetime. Lately, Joe is way off his early pace. Track Odds: 50:1

Also Rans

Other regulars can't be dismissed completely, but prior performance and the distance to be made up put them beyond the long shot range, Chung, Broadus, Sorenson, Kammer, Blyveis, Gaymon, and many other included. Look for Grinnath to reach the 1,000th point mark thirteenth. Combined track odds: 50:1

New Meat

To get to 1,000 first, a rookie will likely have to hit better than 1.8 per week, for the next 10 years. Combined track odds: 500:1

Back From the Dead

Even if they reappeared today, these truly retired are way back in the pack. Krattenmaker, Gearty, Litz. Combined track Odds: 1000:1

More Wit

Week 315: FERMENTING TROUBLE

As I pondered weak and weary
Over tomes of textile theory
Seeking answers to my query
What's the best lint trap design?
Fluids, filters, ducts, and venting
Tinkering, experimenting
In the end, at last, inventing
"Belly Button X-L-9." (Greg Arnold)
The rich old Earl of Roquefort
Founded the "snackables" biz
On the day he stopped beside the road
To take a quick Cheez Whiz. (Jennifer Hart)

Week 317: PICK US A WINNER

A name for a TV show starring Pee Wee Herman and Ellen Degeneres as a typical married couple in suburbia. Winner: "The Dick van Dyke Show." (Bob Dalton)

Vid-traceptives: Hidden cameras used to discourage illicit activities
(Jessica Mathews)

Week 320: WHAT KIND OF FOAL AM I?

Digital Man + Moon Over Prospect = Prostate Exam (Russ Beland)
Bellicose Papa + Humming = SternestHummingway (Stephen Dudzik)

Week 322: YOU NAME IT

"Goldilocks and Ten Bears": the tribal chieftain's naive young wife leaves him after she catches him "sharing the peace pipe" with handsome Lt. Dunbar (Roger Wilcox)

"Amos and Andy Williams": famous for their rendition of Moonpie
River (Mary Lee Fox Roe)

"Law and Order Out": the TV saga of a Capitol Hill pizza delivery business (Kelli Midgley-Biggs)

"Ozzie and Harriet Tubman": a wholesome family sitcom about the underground railroad. (Betsy Rosenblatt)

Week 324: A PREQUEL OPPORTUNITY OFFERING

"The Scarlet Period": An adulterous affair by Hester Prynne ends in miscarriage. (Paul Kocak)

Raging Calves: Jake La Motta's taxing jump rope workouts take their toll as he prepares for his first pro fight. (Howard Walderman)
His writer's block was like (Jonathan Paul)

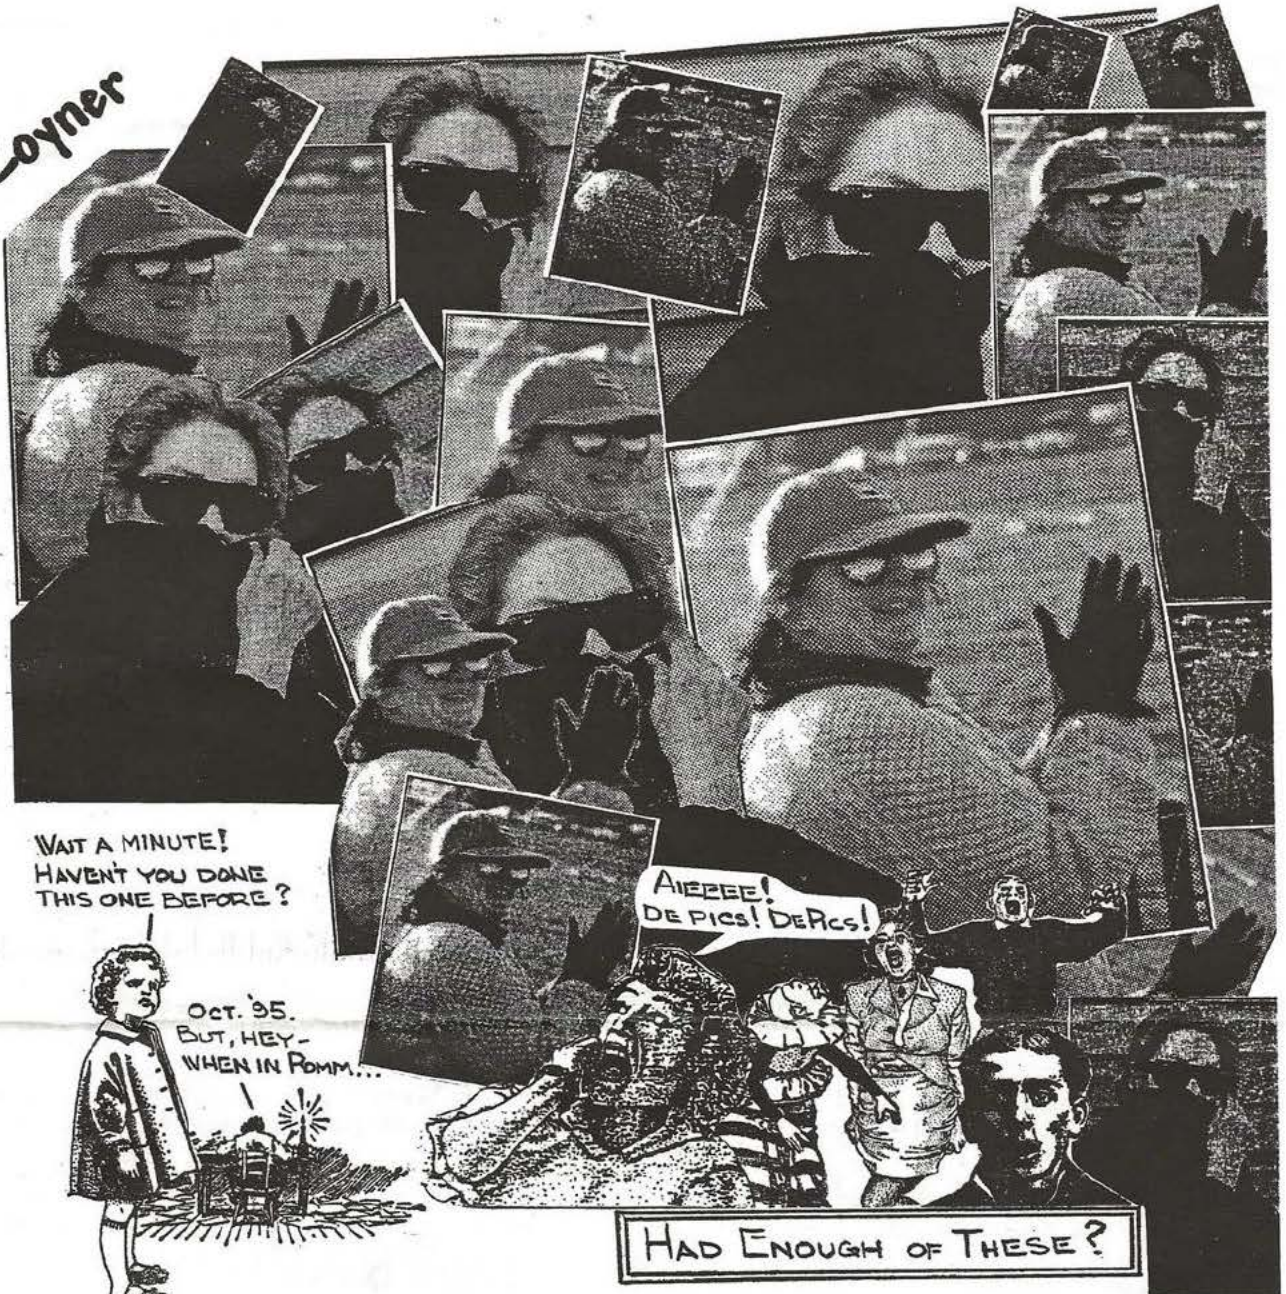

Week 325: THE BURMA ROAD

Georgia:

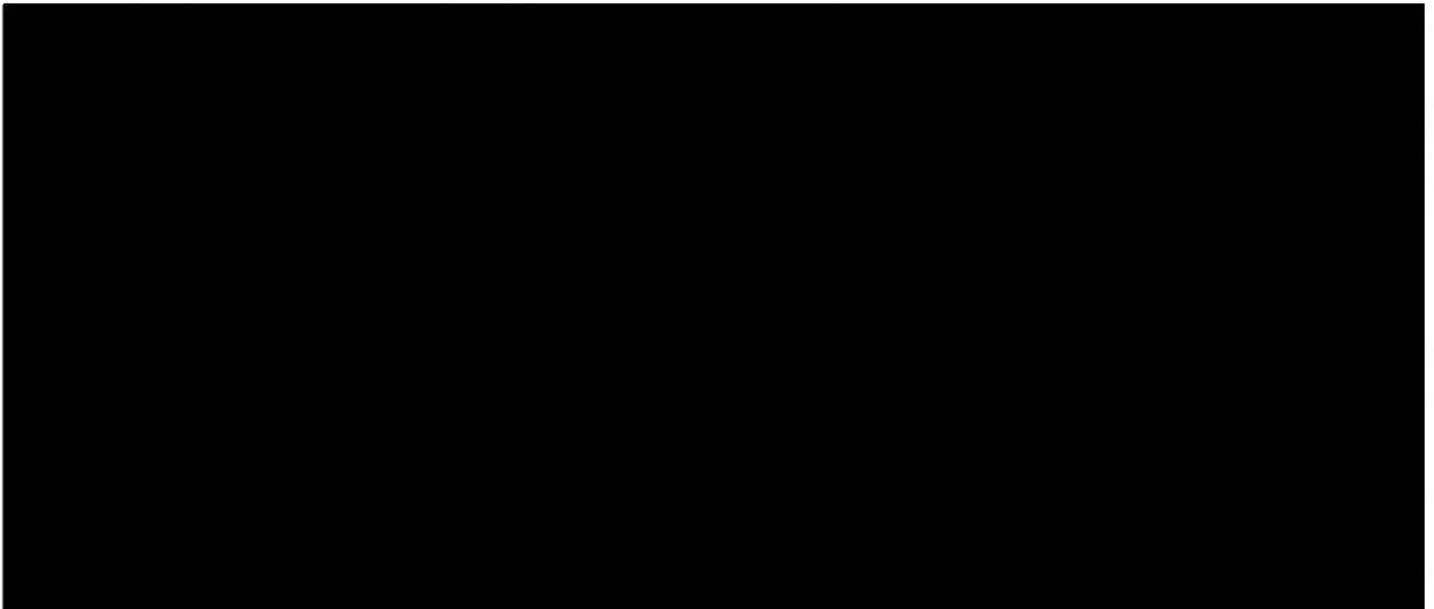

Georgia goobers,
Best that can be.
Other states suffer
From peanuts envy. (Meg Sullivan)
Springfield, Va.:
The screeching, the moaning,
That whining so grand,
Is it the Interchange traffic,
Or Russell Beland? (Stephen Fahey)
Washington, D.C.:
A Dating Purgatory
I'll say it again.
So many women
So little men. (Sue Lin Chong)
